

Sustainability Mission Statement

Across all its business activities, Quintain is committed to the creation of a sustainable environment.

In support of this goal we will introduce environmentally friendly materials, processes and procedures in accordance with best available practices and on a progressive basis.

We commit to the measurement of our progress against this goal and will share our findings with all stakeholders.